

Abdullah Waqas

Abdullah Waqas is currently working as Assistant Professor and OIC Labs at the National University of Technology, Islamabad. Previously, he worked as Visiting lecturer in Department of Electronics and Department of Information Technology, Quaid-I-Azam University, Islamabad, Pakistan. He has obtained his M.Sc, M.Phil, and Ph.D degrees form Department of Electronics, Quaid-I-Azam University, Islamabad. He joined Department of Electrical Engineering, National University of Technology, Islamabad, Pakistan, as a pioneer faculty member in 2018 where he successfully developed the curriculum for BS EE. As a project supervisor, he won Best Project Award from NuTECH for two consecutive years. He also secured the funding of his projects from PEC and NIB. During his tenure as OIC labs, he established 6x state-of-the-art labs with a substantial budget of 300 million rupees. In addition, he published multiple research articles in the domain of wireless communication in well recognized journals and conferences. Furthermore, He is actively engaged in international collaboration, particularly with the Wireless Communication research group in United Arab Emirates University, UAE, University of Bristol, UK, and University of Warwick, UK. His research interest includes 5G and beyond networks, Industrial IoTs, Deep Learning, and network security.

RESEARCH TOOLS

Data Mining Tools

WEKA

KEEL

ORANGE